

Head of Merchandising

This is an opportunity to work for a well established supplier of apparels (womenswear-wovens, jerseys, outerwear, knitwear) to the UK high street. With key customers like Next, George, Tesco, Matalan, Sainsbury's, they have a strong pipeline of orders across all their sourcing offices (China, India, Bangladesh).

They are now seeking an experienced Head of Merchandising/Merchandising Manager to lead their operations for China. The role is based in Shanghai.

Head of Merchandising: The role:

- Lead a team of 3-4 merchandisers and ensure smooth execution of orders
- Manage all aspects of production, work closely with factories all over China
- Support the Bangladesh team on fabric sourcing out of China
- Manage all aspects of product development and negotiate closely with buyers and factories
- Visit the London office from time to time and meet buyers in the UK
- Work with designers in London

Head of Merchandising: The candidate:

The ideal candidate will:

- Be an experienced merchandising manager willing to take on a general manager profile
- Be motivated and be detail oriented
- Have strong product knowledge of womenswear, kidswear, menswear (especially wovens)
- Be well versed in both English and Chinese languages

Please apply in confidence.